

SOMERSET ARCHAEOLOGICAL & NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY
in collaboration with the Wells Natural History and Archaeological Society

You are cordially invited to

2012 ANNUAL ARCHAEOLOGY SYMPOSIUM

10am – 4pm Saturday 10 March 2012

at Wells and Mendip Museum,

8 Cathedral Green, Wells, BA5 2UE

See <http://wellsmuseum.org.uk/where-we-are>

10am (coffee) for 10.30am on

10.30am Recent Archaeological Work in the County

Richard Brunning: Research into the Mesolithic material from Greylake.

Mick Aston: The Winscombe and Sandford Project.

Barry Lane: Saxon Westbury – a planned village?

Rachel Shaw: the Fairfield Project.

Susan Clelland (Wessex Archaeology): An introduction to the excavations at Lyde Green near Yeovil.

Lunch: fend for yourselves

2.15pm Dr Jodie Lewis

The Stonehenge of Somerset – recent research at the Priddy Circles

Photograph courtesy of Pete Glastonbury.

Tea

Admission for the day: £10.00 payable on the door.

The detailed programme will also be published on the Society's website

<http://www.sanhs.org>